

EGC Agri Capital Proudly Sponsoring Global AgInvesting Middle East 2015

As a sponsor of Global AgInvesting Middle East 2015 (GAIME 15), EGC Agri Capital will have the opportunity to communicate the benefits and opportunities promised by Turkish agricultural sector which have higher potential in respect of diversity and production.

EGC Agri Capital is the first and only agribusiness focused private equity manager in Turkey. EGC Agri Capital enjoys the privilege of its prominent place in the sector that needs institutional investors, to achieve required structural changes driven by sector's characteristics such as prolonged period of under investment, lack of efficiency and economies of scale. EGC Agri Capital currently in the process of launching its new off-shore private equity fund that will focus on Turkish agri sector with a farm to fork investment spectrums and with an aim of providing sustainable returns in the long-term by its value-based approach which entails identification of and investing in the best occasions in agribusiness.

EGC Agri Capital is currently manages its first agribusiness investment platform which is Egeli & Co. Agriculture Investment Trust ("EGCYO"). EGCYO is the first and only Turkish closed-end investment platform focusing solely on agribusiness investment. Listed on Borsa Istanbul (BIST) with the ticker EGCYO, Egeli & Co. Agriculture Investment Trust provides investors with a unique opportunity to utilize the growth potential in agriculture through a transparent investment platform regulated and monitored by the Capital Markets Board (CMB). The Company has also a well-established corporate governance system which ensures efficient control of management's execution of strategic decisions.

Global AgInvesting Middle East (GAIME) which will be held in Dubai brings together over 200 agriculture investment stakeholders for educational panel discussions, in-depth analysis and unrivaled opportunities to network with the preeminent international gathering of forward-thinking investors who see agriculture investing as a critical strategy to ensure food security as well as financial returns.